The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

Little is known of the vast numbers of charitable deeds that are being performed daily by so many good citizens of our community.

We are acquainted with one such Samaritan who, once a week for over a year, has driven a station wagon for the Sunshine School delivering cerebral palsy patients to and from their school. He not only donates his time but let's see just how precious that time is to him. He leaves his home at 8 a.m. and drives the station wagon until 3 p.m. Then he leaves for his regular aircraft plant shift where he works until midnight.

Believe us, when this man speaks of the wonderful work the school and teachers are doing—you wish you had a million bucks to give to them.

IS IT NEWSWORTHY?

What's happened to the newspaper profession? Is every movement Bonelli makes as he meanders through the mezzanine deserving of front page billing? And must we really be subjected to the Peress mess again?

Men, we think the real news concerns the Padres. Personally, they can indict, extradite, incite or just plain take Bonelli, the story we're interested in is not Big Bill's return, but Big Dick Sisler's homecoming. Now, that's news, brother.

The rhythmic cadence implied by the mere mention of Peterson to Federoff to Sisler literally titillates the tinpanny. Now, compare that with the discordant cacophony of sound implied by the mention of Adams, Stevens and McCarthy. See you at Lane Field Tuesday.

ML—The sweet young thing was entertaining a new boy friend and as the evening wore on he leaned over and stole a kiss. "Tell me," she said hopefully, "Am I the first girl you ever kissed?"

"Come to think of it," he replied, "your face does look familiar."

SHERIFF RIGLEY TRANSFERRED TO HIGHER OFFICE

It will be farewell to Sheriff Willard A. Rigley this week when he leaves to take up new duties assigned to him in the sheriff's Crime and Violence Detail.

Rigley has been on duty in Lemon Grove since August, 1948 and has been the only officer in charge since the office was started.

"It has been a pleasure working with residents of Lemon Grove," Rigley said. "Although the new assignment is in nature of a promotion, I am not altogether happy that my duties will keep me in the downtown offices."

Rigley has worked on such well known cases as the De Costa murder, the Pope murder and the Twoomey shooting. He lives in Lemon Grove at 7407 Central Ave. with his wife Margaret and Willard Rigley II. A daughter, Mary Alice, is married and lives in El Cajon.

Rigley will be replaced by Claude L. Smith who lives on Pacific Street in Lemon Grove. Smith has been working with Rigley during the past several months.

Rigley's most important work, among those who worked with such problems, has been with juveniles. He has attracted county wide attention for his rehabilitation work.

Woman's Club to See 'Queen for a Day'

Lemon Grove Woman's Club will offer a tour to Los Angeles to see the Queen for a Day program, it was announced this week by Marie Howell, chairman of the event. The trip will be taken on Thursday, April 14 and visitors will see Art Linkletter and Bob Crosby.

A bus will leave from the clubhouse at 8 a.m. the day of the trip, and the bus fare is $5. The group will stop at Knott's Berry Farm for dinner.

For further information contact Mrs. Howell at HO 6-8383.

POSTAL SERVICE EXTENDED

Postal delivery service will start this week in the 1500 block on Koe Street for patrons having suitable mail receptacles, it was announced by Postmaster F. Faucher.

These residents have been getting their mail via general delivery by making a special trip to the postoffice.

Savings and Loan Associations Lead in Home Financing Says Association President

The nation's 6,000 savings and loan associations continued to be America's leading source of funds for home financing, John A. Davis, president, La Mesa-El Cajon Savings and Loan Association, said today.

"Last year associations throughout the nation financed more than one out of every three homes built. The year 1954 set a new record for savings institutions of America in net savings inflow. There was an increase of more than four billion dollars, or 21% over the 1953 figures. La Mesa-El Cajon Savings and Loan Association showed an increase of more than 22% for the same period," he said.

Mr. Davis attributes savings and loan leadership and the tremendous growth of such institutions during the postwar period largely to the public recognition of the soundness of these institutions and their specialized knowledge in meeting the community's thrift and home financing needs. "The people know," he said, "when they put savings in our institutions they are insured up to $10,000.00 through an agency of the federal government. They know these funds are prudently invested under close supervision and recognize the fact that there is no better security behind a loan than the American home, particularly in such substantial communities as La Mesa, El Cajon and Lemon Grove.

"Savings and loan associations in this country," he added, "have about twenty-six billion dollars invested in American homes spread among approximately five million home owners. The market value of these homes has been established at sixty billion dollars. Today's home mortgage debt, low in relation to personal income and national income, is less burdensome and far more manageable than in past eras, with low interest rates and attractive monthly payment plans," he concluded.

CONTEST FOR MAYFAIR 'BEST EMPLOYEE' STARTS

If you see the clerks in Mayfair bending over backwards to be courteous, helpful and neat more than usual during April you'll know that the contest that Mayfair manager Larry Childress has dreamed up is part of the cause.

He has set up a polling place for customers and they may vote on the qualities of their favorite clerk, salesperson, butcher, checker or box-boy. The one who receives the most votes when the contest is over near the end of the month will get a $31.95 alarm clock-radio.

"We've got more than 50 persons competing for the prize," Childress said. "If our patrons have as much trouble picking out the winner as I would have, it will be a close race."

Chamber New Office Is Opened

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce has been firmly ensconced in their new business office at 3467 Imperial Ave., which is on the north side of the Grove Theatre.

The office may be reached by telephone during the early part of the day by calling HO 9-9621. Abe Goldberg is presently managing the office on a volunteer basis.

Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors Present $2,000 Check to Swimming Pool Chairman

Above you see the results of cooperation between Seniors (who furnished the delectable desserts for the evening show) merchants, (door prizes) and everyone who contributed to the swimming pool fund by enjoying "Lilac Time."

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors presented a check for $2,000.00 to the fund.

The check was presented at a recent meeting of the Juniors. New members accepted into the Juniors were Mrs. Ray F. Treinen and Mrs. Robert T. Sjogren.

There will be a board meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Tom Mitchell, 7824 Barton Dr., April 5 at 8 p.m.

School Polio Shots To Start April 16

Members of the Lemon Grove School District board of trustees approved the polio vaccination project for first and second graders in the schools here, pending approval of the Salk vaccine by the National Institutes of Health. Once licensed, the vaccine no longer will be experimental, and national trials such as the University of Michigan tests will not be held. Permission slips securing parental endorsement have been sent home through the schools with children in these first two grades. Those children whose parents OK the vaccine will be given a series of three shots, April 16, April 23, and May 21.

Earlier this week representatives of Ninth District Parent Teachers Association urged co-operation of local P-TA's with city and county schools in making the program effective. The national Congress of P-TA endorsed the program last year. It is hoped that these mass inoculations will prove effective in combating the 1955 polio epidemic which is expected to reach its peak during the summer months.

At the Monday evening meeting this week the board unanimously approved the appointment of John Dail, local insurance broker, as insurance broker of record for the school district. He will act in an advisory and supervisory capacity for the total insurance program.

Board members have been attending meetings of the San Diego County Committee on School District Organization, urging denial of the San Diego Unified School District's request to annex 71 acres of Lemon Grove School District land. No action has yet been taken by the committee on this particular parcel, but the 16 acres of state-owned land at the site of the former drive-in theater has been annexed to the city of San Diego, at the recommendation of the committee, but it will remain in the Lemon Grove School District for tax purposes.

A spring recreation program has been set up with Louis Poluzzi, director, and Mike Calderone, assistant. Baseball will be offered for boys of the junior high on Tuesday and Friday afternoons from 3:30 until 5:30. Organized baseball teams in the community wishing the use of the lighted field in the evenings, 7 to 9, may secure permission through Louis Poluzzi care of the Education Center, Lemon Grove. The field will be available three nights a week for such groups, with a playground supervisor on duty. A summer program will be submitted for board approval at a later date by the recreation director.

An interesting presentation of work done in special training, remedial reading, and speech correction was made to the board by Mrs. Genevieve Oliphant and Ray Curry, teachers here in the district. Members of the county superintendent's staff attended the demonstrations.

Fire Election Set for Monday

Annual election for Lemon Grove fire commissioner will be held Monday. Polling place will be at the Fire Station on Central and School Lane. Voting time will be 1 to 7 p.m.

Up for re-election is Tom Parsons, an employee of the Lemon Grove Hardware Company. Also running is I. J. Leone, a salesman.

FORMER NEWSHEN HAS A CHICK

A baby weighing 7 pounds, 14½ ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin McCauley. She was formerly Beverly Henderson, who was Teen-Age columnist for the Review in 1953-54.

The child, 21 inches long, was born at the Naval Hospital March 21. The husband, a sailor, was due back in this country on March 23 but the tanker on which he is serving was returned to Midway for oil and he will not arrive until April 3.

Mrs. McCauley attended Helix and was married by Rev. Dan Apra last May. The baby, named Michael James, is the first boy born since his father, 23 years ago.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

The followers of this column have known me to tee off on our chamber of commerce with an abandon reserved only for derelicts and bums.

Each time I did this I stacked up a pile of a few more critics of my editorial meanderings. I did not attempt to defend myself against the protests of the latter because I felt that the chamber of commerce would hit upon the right formula for pulling itself together into the type of organization which would deserve a defense.

Under the gentle but objective direction of Dr. Robert Swenson, the chamber, with the aid of some new blood on the board, has come nearer to achieving the real purpose for which it is intended than any of its predecessors. In one meeting recently the board voted: to take on a community rodeo; to acquire a manager; to rent an office (this they did the same night); to subscribe to their by-laws; to admit that their by-laws are outdated, and agreed to poll their membership for a revision.

All this activity is commendable, and purposeful activity is long past due. Already, the business community is beginning to flock to the chamber to support it in its revitalized program.

That support of a chamber is unusual may seem surprising to many persons beyond the vague and variable boundaries of Lemon Grove, but to me, an observer of the cute tricks of purposeful men of considerable estate, it is a wonder that the chamber has been able to pull out of this morass at all.

There has been a purpose in keeping the chamber an impotent group. It transferred the authority for community representation to a group which could, from time to time, say to the supervisors, the planning department and the road department, that they were the nominal spokesmen for the community and as such could demand changes and improvements in areas where it would do the most good... for this small group.

They pointed out to the county government, I am assured, that they, as men of substance, represented as many persons as any other group... that they had been dependable in the past in keeping down the squawks of the animal taxpayers... and they proved themselves capable by keeping the chamber of commerce emasculated.

Now the chamber has grown stronger and the voices of contrivers are fading into the background, not because they are less determined, but because the chamber has grown strong enough to be heard above their rantings.

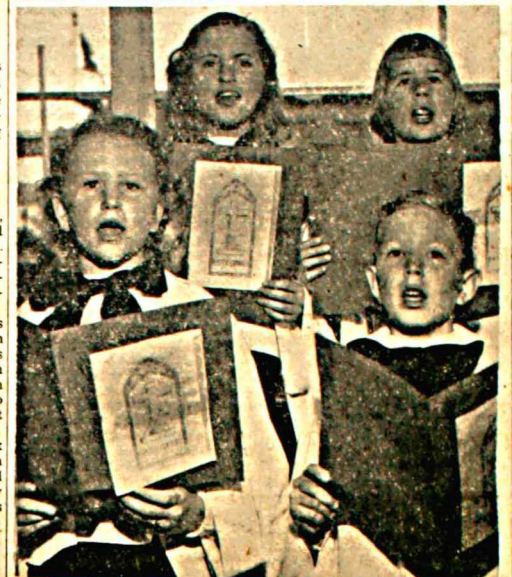

As the relative strength of the chamber increased, some of the chamber-resistant group set up a cesspool of vituperation and hate, and splashed it on all who attempted to better their community for civic considerations alone. They simply couldn't understand how anyone could work for their community without a direct profit for themselves. Now that has begun to change.

Even so, it will be a long time before they will admit, even to themselves, that there are "men of good will" on earth and in Lemon Grove.

THE SHOW'S THE THING!

This Thursday the Grove Theatre proudly announces the main feature as a new type of gangster film titled "Dragnet," starring Jack Webb as Sergeant Joe Friday; Ben Alexander as Officer Frank Smith; Ann Robinson as Grace Downey, a policewoman; Richard Boone as Capt. Hamilton; and Virginia Gregg, Stacy Harris, Victor Perrin and James Griffith. After seeing "Dragnet" on a 21-inch TV set it is quite a shock to see Friday and his protectors of the peace enlarged 300 times; a shock that sends the audience home happy. The movie has far more depth, more perspective and far more realism—with the plot an ever-stepping affair. The main formula is the hard-bitten, almost documentary recital of every-day police work, complete with a hint of a romantic interest between Friday and his policewoman. The ironic epigrams at the closing of one of Friday's scenes multiply as the 90-minute movie speeds to a close, but it's the opening that's the eye-scorcher. It opens with shock impact—a brutal and bloody gang murder before the title and credits are given—and moves from there to the close police tracking until the culprit is apprehended. "Dragnet" is very good! The companion feature is a good, rousing western photographed in color for United Artists and is titled "The Yellow Tomahawk." It stars Rory Calhoun, Peggie Castle and Noah Berry, Jr. These two pics will run through Saturday.

Based upon the earlier success, "Four Daughters," the movie "Young at Heart" contains an acting performance by Frank Sinatra in the role of a bitterly witty piano player who is pursued by an adverse fate that constantly defeats him but never humbles the lad. Doris Day sings in that perky, youthful manner that won her millions of fans. The script abounds in witty dialogue and there are some appealing scenes of family life, centering around Miss Day, Dorothy Malone and Liz Fraser, who play three charming sisters. The second feature is "This is My Love" and both "Heart" and "Love" play Sunday through Tuesday.—B. T.

'Platter Parade'

By BOB TURNBULL
HO 9-3448

Ratner Recommends . . . the following two pop discs for your collections: (1) "Turn Right if Anyone Finds This" and "I Love You" by Kay Starr. Also (2) "Young and Foolish" and "Under the Bridges of Paris" by Dean Martin.

Platter Poll . . . Here are this week's five pop tunes as compiled by Ratner Electric, Eighth and Broadway in downtown San Diego (phone BE 4-3363). (1) "Tweedle Dee," by Her nibs, Miss Georgia Gibbs; (2) "That's All I Want From You" by J. P. Morgan; (3) "Mr. Sandman," "The Chordettes"; (4) "Earth Angel," The Penguins; (5) "Kokomo" Perry Como. Leading classic: "Brahm's Violin Concerto" by Milstein and the best selling jazz record is "I'm Gone" by King Pleasure on the Prestige banner.

Emergency (?) . . . When the hurricane hit the New England coastline a few months ago, station WAVZ in New Haven, Connecticut, eliminated their music shows for a while and broadcast weather reports and other storm information. In order to keep lines clear, the announcer requested on the air that people refrain from calling in unless it was "urgent." At the height of the storm a lady called insisting "This is quite urgent." Asked about her problem, she said, "I have to leave my house by 10 a.m. and do you think that before then you'll have a chance to play 'Sh-Boom'?"

Pacific Jazz . . . Following is a short list of $3.85 lp's that can be yours for the asking at Ratner's on the Pacific Jazz label. "Laurindo Almeida Quartet; Featuring Bud Shank," "Russ Freeman Trio," "Chet Baker Ensemble," "Lee Konitz Plays with Gerry Mulligan Quartet," and "Chet Baker Sings." Your best instrumental singles bet is the "Harry Edison Quartet," while the "Chet Baker Quartet" sell the best vocal singles. Pacific Jazz's address, for those interested, is 6124 Santa Monica Blvd., Hollywood, California.

Annual Masonic Lodge-Public Schools Week Essay Contest will be held April 25-29 this year, it was announced this week.

Three $25 U. S. Defense bonds will go as prizes to group winners and certificates of honorable mention will go to the runners-up.

Essays written around the title "Free Public Schools Are Essential in a Democracy" will be judged by a committee chosen by the Lemon Grove Masonic Lodge. Deadline is April 11 for entries.

Fourth and fifth grade pupils will be restricted to 200 words; sixth, seventh and eighth graders will be allowed 250 words, while High students may go as high as 300 words.

No names will appear on the essays; they will be judged as a number for identification only. Penmanship and neatness will get 10% of the total; spelling and punctuation 30%, and content 60%.

The principal of each school will pass on additional information.

Last year's winners were Judy Koopmans, Zena Dail and Barbie Brinkman.

Two Grove Men are Taking Part in 'Surf Board'

PACIFIC FLEET—Aboard the destroyer USS Taussig is Frank E. Perry, torpedoman's mate first class, USN, of 1515 Skyline Dr., and aboard the killer submarine USS Bream is William E. Kelly, engineman first class, USN, of 3640 Costabella Ave., all of Lemon Grove, taking part in a joint Army-Navy "Operation Surf-board" along the west coast. The training exercise, taking place between March 14 and 30, has more than 50 U. S. Pacific Fleet ships and a 6,000-man Regimental Combat Team from the Army 2nd Infantry Division involved.

JIMMY MACZKO WINS PRIZE

Jimmy Maczko, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Maczko of 8671 Golf Dr., S. V., was awarded a three car set in the recent Johnny Downs contest on Channel 10. Jimmy entered a cartoon advising children to be careful of cars. His advice: "Don't put your arm out of the window of a moving car." Johnny's comment was "That's real good advice, especially for the younger children."

CONGREGATIONAL SCOUT TROOP IN CAMPOUT

Lemon Grove Boy Scout Troop 108, under the sponsorship of Men's Fellowship, Congregational Church, participated in a weekend campout at Sonja's Ranch March 19 and 20. Many requirements for Scout advancement were passed and ten Scouts were initiated for their first night of camping.

Church services Sunday were capably conducted by Danny Heiserman and Bobby Nelson. These two Scouts are working on their God and Country Church Award with the Reverend Bruno Puschel.

The highlight of the campout was a talk and demonstration on first aid by Dr. Milton M. Miller of Lemon Grove.

The following Scouts, under the leadership of Scoutmaster H. L. Hall Sr. and Troop Committee Chairman R. Heiserman, attended: H. Hall Jr., D. Heiserman, C. Kitchell, T. Kyte, M. Pierce, D. Downer, D. Wilson, G. Olginio, R. Curley, R. Richardson, E. Godfrey, W. Aiken, L. Starkey, R. Foss, C. King, R. Wright, M. Jones, R. Haas, D. Deavers, E. Peterson, R. Nelson, A. Foss, R. Drew, W. Starkey, D. Willard, J. King, and L. Pugmire.

In spite of rain and hail Sunday morning, the campout was considered a success by all attending.

Now It's Lieutenant James Dickenson

QUANTICO, Va. — Commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps recently, James R. Dickenson, son of Mrs. Anna A. Raichart of 2053 Eldora Ave., Lemon Grove, is now undergoing a five month basic course at the Marine Corps Schools here.

He completed a ten week indoctrination and training course as an officer candidate prior to receiving a reserve commission.

The basic course will acquaint him with tactics and supporting weapons used in a Marine rifle company and battalion, and qualify him to perform various staff duties.

WINNING TITLE IS BIGGEST THRILL SAYS JO

Thinking about entering the "Fair of the Fair—Miss Con-Tour" queen pageant this year? If you are between the ages of 17 through 22 and single, you will be interested to read about 17-year-old Jo Johnson, whose successor now is being sought throughout the city and county of San Diego.

"Winning the title of 'Fair of the Fair' has been Jo Johnson's biggest thrill in her yet-young life," Maureen Connolly, the retired tennis queen and columnist, wrote after an interview with Jo recently.

Lemon Grove-Spring Valley's preliminary contest will be held Thursday evening, May 5 at Michael's Restaurant under the sponsorship of the Lions Club. Hap Van Nice is the project chairman.

Entry blanks now are available at Lemon Grove Camera Shop, Helen Gaudin's Style Shop, the Valley Pharmacy, Spring Valley, Stan's Market, Casa de Oro, or directly from Van Nice.

nelle Adams and Mrs. Margaret Besack, assembly delegate and lodge delegate. The Rebekah Assembly will meet in San Jose the week of May 9 to 16. Reports will be given by each of these delegates at our May 20 meeting.

'My Three Angels' Is Globe Presentation

"My Three Angels," a witty and humorous play by Sam and Bella Spewack, is the next attraction at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park. Produced by the San Diego Community Theatre and directed by Craig Noel, "My Three Angels" will be presented nightly except Sundays, from April 4 to 30.

"My Three Angels" is based on an original French comedy by Albert Husson called "La Cuisine des Anges." Premiered in 1952, it was an immediate success and ran for over two years in Paris. The Spewack adaptation opened in New York in March, 1953 and played successfully for 11 months and was later toured.

Appearing in the Globe Theatre production will be Miller Bushway as Joseph, Don Robinson as Alfred and John Parlow as Jules, the three "angels" who are doing time in a French Guiana penal colony; Nan Adams as Emilie Ducotel, Cynthia Harrison as Marie Louise Ducotel, Dawna Shove as Mme. Parole, Art Bucaro as Felix Ducotel, William Quigley as Henri, Bruce McCracken as Paul and Gene Walker as the lieutenant.

Erin Martin is featured on Pacific Telephone's THIS IS YOUR MUSIC!

The props this girl has danced with! The scenery she's seen and the places she's been!

The props and places are all a part of Pacific Telephone's imaginative television musical, "This is Your Music." And the girl, Erin Martin, is a part of that half-hour show that is seen Sundays here at 6 p.m. on Channel 10.

Erin danced with a stage full of ropes in "The Johnny Mercer Show." She twirled in and out of space ships in "Mid Century Music." And she tapped on rooftops and dipped gracefully up and down ladders in "Popular Classics."

Music, placed with style and taste in visual setting, is the idea of "This is Your Music." And Erin, in that imaginative musical style, has been on a "Holiday in Europe," on a tour of the South Pacific in "USO" and way out on a dude ranch in "Western Songs."

On March 25 another festival

Mrs. John Cornelius.

Youngsters Get Nutritious Luncheon At School Cafeterias Says Staff

Balancing the grocery budget is less of a problem for parents in the Lemon Grove School district when the children eat balanced nutritious meals at the school cafeterias. Through efficient management, over 1200 students daily are able to purchase hot lunches for 25 cents, less than most snack lunches which cost at home, according to the school administrative staff.

FIRST WINNER IN 1955 CAMERA CONTEST

Winner of first prize in the first of the 1955 series of Lemon Grove Camera Shop-Lemon Grove Review Annual Photo Contest was Mrs. Jean Phillips, 4122 45th St., who is employed at Bill's Self Service in Lemon Grove.

Judges decided that picture of her dog "Fuzzy," presumably reading a magazine article titled "Cats" had enough human interest to make her winner. Picture was taken with a Speed Graphic camera. Mrs. Phillips won a casting rod from Erv Brandon's Sporting Goods Shop.

Second prize picture (not shown) was John L. Benica, 7856 Bryan Court, showing his eight month old daughter in a bathtub. He won a canned ham from Buddy's Food Mart. Third prize went to Don Winter, 3640 Costa Bella, for a picture taken in the rugged woods of Humboldt County. He won two dinners at Pal's Cafe.

The contest is open to all. It is not necessary to make a purchase. Any print or negative may be entered, regardless of where it was processed or purchased. Judging is on the basis of good photography plus human interest of subject.

Second Payment on Real Property Taxes Due Soon

The second installment delinquent date for 1954-55 real property taxes will be April 10 at 5 p.m. All taxpayers who have not already paid the second installment of taxes on their real property are urged by Tax Collector Wilbur W. Easton not to wait until the last day to come to the Civic Center to personally pay the taxes, or to mail in their payments.

The last few days' crowds make it a physical strain to stand in line at the tax office tellers' windows, so use of the mail is advised. Particular attention is called to the fact that mail payments must show postmark at point of origin no later than 5 p.m. of delinquency date to avoid penalty and costs.

Veterans are requested to examine their tax bills to see if a small tax is due, because some special assessments are not covered by veterans' exemption. Such tax would incur penalty and costs and subject the property to sale to the state, same as other taxes, if not paid.

In order to save extra endorsing of checks and money orders all remittances should be made payable to Wilbur W. Easton, County Tax Collector. Bills now held by taxpayers, which were issued prior to January 3, 1955, carry the name of the former tax collector, Raymond B. Talbot, who retired on that date.

Two Month Record Set in Savings Bonds Says Westover

Investments in U. S. Savings Bonds over January and February were the highest on record for any two-month period in the peacetime history of the treasury thrift program.

This was reported today by Stephen Westover, community chairman of bond activities in Lemon Grove, in announcing the country's progress toward its 1955 goal of $26,772,480.

Total January and February sales of the widely owned Series E bond and the current income Series H bond amounted to $4,609,301. This, the local drive chairman stated, is six per cent higher than sales of the two Savings Bonds series over the corresponding months of 1954, in San Diego County.

Westover added that San Diego County February sales were $2,042,322. Of the total, Series H accounted for $429,500, a gain of $241,500 over February a year ago, which expresses, Westover said, the growing demand by investors for the current income features of this relatively new government security.

HORMEL'S PICNICS

Mayfair hams are famous for tenderness and exquisite taste. That's because our meat buyers are jealous of the reputation they are determined to uphold. A ham purchased over the Mayfair counter carries double indemnity. This is that the packer has bought and cured carefully, and that Mayfair chose only the cream of his crop.
